NEW YORK, NY., January 29, 2013 – Quit Tea has been on the market in the United States since 2010, and is now available for sale in China. Quit Tea is a blend of herbs and spices that is intended to help you replace the habit of smoking with drinking herbal tea. Quit Tea will help temporarily support your willpower, to get through cravings, and start a new healthier life. Quit Tea has been available for sale in the United States since May 2010 and is now distributed in China by North America Wellness Corp.'s president Judy Zhu.

Since Quit Tea was launched in 2010, over 250,000 smokers in the United States have tried Quit Tea. It is currently the best selling non-nicotine/non-pharmaceutical smoking cessation aid on many if the major online retailers, including Amazon.com, Drugstore.com, and Walgreens.com. It is used and recommended by doctors, naturopaths, acupuncturist, chiropractors, and smoking cessation specialists. Quit Tea has been written into two books on quitting smoking, “The Healthy Smoker” by Dr. Charles Bens, and “The Winning Way To Quit Smoking” by Shirley Amy.

Quit Tea is a behavioral method for quitting that supports the Substitution Strategy for Quitting Smoking. The herbs help temporarily support willpower to get smokers through the cravings without wanting to smoke, and then recondition the triggers to smoke from cigarettes to drinking herbal tea. The herbs in Quit Tea are: Valerian Root, Sarsaparilla Root, Cinnamon Bark, Burdock Root, Red Clover Flower, St Johns Wort Leaf & Flower, Ginger Root, Clove Bud, Licorice Root, Fennel Seed, Oregano Leaf, Black Pepper, and Cayenne Pepper.

North America Wellness Corp. is currently the only distributor with rights to distributor Quit Tea in China. Judy Zhu and Matt Bucklin, the president and creator of Quit Tea, are currently work on plans to expand retail distribution, and market Quit Tea in China directly to smokers. There are an estimated 350,000,000 smokers in China, and very few options available to help smokers quit.

Outside of the United States, Quit Tea is also sold in Canada, Western Europe, Chile, and Costa Rica. Quit Tea is produced in the United States from only the highest quality herbal ingredients. The company recently moved from Los Angeles, to New York, while keeping their operations in California.
