

Quit Picks Flavored Habit Replacement Now Available For Smokers

Quit Co. is launching their own brand of high quality Cinnamint oil toothpicks called Quit Pick, to address the behavioral dependency to cigarettes, and help smokers easily replace their smoking habit for good.

GREENWICH, CT., Wednesday, September 21, 2016 – The Quit Company started selling Quit Picks, their own brand of high quality Cinnamint oil toothpicks. Quit Picks are a simple tool to help smokers replace the habit, for use anywhere and anytime to help satisfy cravings and form a new healthy habit.

The habit of smoking cigarettes can last a lifetime, because nicotine is so addictive, and more importantly the behavioral dependency to smoking is not easily broken, but can be replaced. Many smokers want to quit, but often have trouble forming new healthy habits to replace cigarettes.

Quit Picks are simply toothpicks dipped in high quality cinnamon, peppermint, and spearmint oils, for a strong fresh flavor that lasts a long time. These 3 essential oils help promote blood circulation, respiratory health, healthy digestion, and relieve stress. Quit Picks also provide fresh smoke free breath all day.

Each box of Quit Picks contains 4 resealable pouches of 75 toothpicks. Typically a box will last at least 1 month, but could last 3 months depending on the frequency of use, enough to replace a cigarette smoking habit for good.

Every time a smoker feels the urge for a cigarette, they should use a Quit Pick to keep their mouth busy until the flavor is gone. Doing this for at least 3 months will help reduce cravings and form a new healthy habit. Quit Picks should be used in combination with other smoking cessation aids, or other Quit Co. products.

The Quit Company tested Quit Picks on a group of 25 product reviewers interested in smoking cessation, either themselves or for close friend or relative. The feedback was better than expected, receiving an average of 4.8 out of 5 stars on a product rating scale. Most reviewers were impressed with the flavor, how long Quit Picks were able to temporarily satisfy cravings.

Quit Picks are available for sale on Amazon.com through The Quit Company's Storefront, and will be sold through retailers. Soon all Quit Co. kits on Amazon.com will include a small packet of 75 Quit Picks, and Complete Quit Kits will include a full box of Quit Picks.
